What do we know or not know about people on the move in the context of disasters and climate change? During this webinar, experts will share the state of the art and empirical evidence around diverse forms of human mobility and immobility in the context of environmental challenges, including empirical challenges, data and trends and projections for the future.

The discussion will be moderated by Atle Solberg, Head of the Platform on Disaster Displacement Secretariat.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

- Justin Ginnetti,
Independent Consultant
- Caroline Zickgraf,
Hugo Observatory
- Kanta Kumari Rigaud,
World Bank
- Luiza de Moura Pallone,
South American Network
for Environmental Migrations

This session is part of a seminar series convened by the RLI and its Internal Displacement Research Programme, in partnership with the Platform on Disaster Displacement.

The series brings together diverse perspectives on how law and policy can respond to global human mobility and environmental challenges. Its six topical sessions will be broadcast live in an interactive format via Zoom.
