What are the implications of COVID-19, as a particular kind of a natural (biological) hazard, and its impact and implications for global trends and debates addressed in previous sessions?

Join us for a discussion moderated by David Cantor of the Refugee Law Initiative and Walter Kaelin of the Platform on Disaster Displacement.

SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

- Paul Spiegel, Johns Hopkins University
- Mihir Bhatt, All India Disaster Mitigation Institute
- Aimée-Noël Mbiyozo, Institute for Security Studies Africa
- Nikolas Feith Tan, Danish Institute for Human Rights

This session is part of a seminar series convened by the RLI and its Internal Displacement Research Programme, in partnership with the Platform on Disaster Displacement.

The series brings together diverse perspectives on how law and policy can respond to global human mobility and environmental challenges. Its six topical sessions will be broadcast live in an interactive format via Zoom.
