SIDE EVENT AT THE 34TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE RED CROSS AND RED CRESCENT

PEOPLE ON THE MOVE IN A CHANGING CLIMATE: LOCALLY LED ACTION

This event will explore the critical role of locally led action in promoting the resilience and adaptation of people at risk of displacement in the context of disasters and climate change, and in responding to the needs of displaced people.

Representatives of States – including Germany, Kenya, the Marshall Islands – as well as of National Societies, United Nations and other stakeholders will exchange on effective practices, existing commitments, and priorities for future action.

The event will be held primarily in English and interpretation will be available in Arabic, English, French, and Spanish. Lunch will be provided.
